CLOSED SESSION

EMPLOYEE ASSOCIATION AGREEMENT

The Association's response and suggestions to the overtime issue was provided including projected cost savings. The Authority's Labor Attorney sent a notice to the mediator since there has been no further meetings. The Association Attorney advised that he has a meeting with the Association scheduled for next week. The Association has dropped the cost of living from 8% and 10% to 8%, 6%, 6%, 2%, 2%. The mediator offered available evening dates in April to meet. The mediator has a few dates in March that are during the day.

The use of a private insurance company to pay for the Additional Sick benefit was discussed. Additionally the need to include it in the negotiations was reviewed. It was agreed that it could be included in the negotiations.
